OPEN DISCUSSION

This weekend during At The Movies, we watched scenes from 'Hitch'. Share what you enjoyed, made you smile, laugh, or think a little differently.

DIG DEEPER

1) The film emphasizes that genuine connection through sincerity and vulnerability is more meaningful than using tactics or manipulation to gain someone's affection. How can we guard our hearts against those who choose manipulation over authenticity?

2) 1 Corinthians 13:5 reminds us that real love isn't selfish or controlling, but marked by humility and compromise. Can you recall a time you set aside your ego for someone you love and by doing so, what was the outcome?

3) Romans 12:9 says, "Love must be sincere." If romantic strategies have their limits, what happens when genuine, lasting relationships are built on honesty, trust, and emotional openness?

4) Love isn't just a feeling we fall into, it's a commitment we choose to live out every day through patience, sacrifice, and intentionality. Take a moment to reflect: where have you seen this kind of love at work in your relationships?

5) Advice rooted in unresolved hurt can lead us down a path shaped by fear instead of wisdom. That's why it's important to consider where advice is coming from. How do you protect yourself from terrible advice?

6) Charm may impress for a moment, but character lasts and reveals itself over time. In a culture that often values appearance over integrity, how can you live out the wisdom of Proverbs 31:30 that honors a life marked by faith and godliness?

PRAY TOGETHER

As we wrap up our time together, let's take a moment to close in prayer.
